

Excellence in Regeneration 2020

This award recognises an outstanding regeneration project. Initiatives can include a new social or mid-market rent housing development; community garden, hub or service; development of a sense of place; and/or overall improved living conditions.

Submissions must evidence how the organisation has worked in partnership with the local and wider community to revitalise the area and provide long term benefits.

Who can apply?

This award is open to all housing organisations within the Scottish social rented sector.

The judging process

- » An independent judging panel will rate your application against the award criteria. The panel will consist of representatives from organisations across the Scottish social rented sector.
- » Your award submission will provide the basis for both the shortlist and final decision of the winning entry.
- » TIS welcome applications in more than one award category.
- » Please ensure you answer all questions as fully as possible and keep the content of your nomination focused – avoid exceeding the suggested word count.
- » Only submit supporting evidence if this provides additional and relevant information.
