

Most Inspiring Scrutiny Group 2020

This award recognises an exceptional standard of scrutiny practice that has made a real difference to the lives of tenants, the delivery of housing services, and improvement of satisfaction levels.

Submissions must evidence how the scrutiny group has worked in partnership to embed scrutiny within their housing organisation's strategic approach and have demonstrated an outstanding contribution to empowering tenants to work together, have their say, and influence decisions about housing policies, services and standards.

Who can apply?

This award is open to tenant, residents and community groups who are focused on scrutiny activities.

The judging process

- » An independent judging panel will rate your application against the award criteria. The panel will consist of representatives from organisations across the Scottish social rented sector.
- » Your award submission will provide the basis for both the shortlist and final decision of the winning entry.
- » TIS welcome applications in more than one award category.
- » Please ensure you answer all questions as fully as possible and keep the content of your nomination focused – avoid exceeding the suggested word count.
- » Only submit supporting evidence if this provides additional and relevant information.
