

Tenant Participation Champion Award 2020

This award recognises an individual member of staff who has demonstrated a commitment to empowering tenants, residents, and community groups to work together, have their say, and influence decisions about housing policies, services and standards.

Submissions must evidence how the individual has driven tenant participation forward within their organisation to achieve great practice that others can learn from in the future.

Who can apply?

This award is open to an individual member of staff working within a housing organisation within the Scottish social rented sector.

The judging process

- » An independent judging panel will rate your application against the award criteria. The panel will consist of representatives from organisations across the Scottish social rented sector.
- » Your award submission will provide the basis for both the shortlist and final decision of the winning entry.
- » TIS welcome applications in more than one award category.
- » Please ensure you answer all questions as fully as possible and keep the content of your nomination focused – avoid exceeding the suggested word count.
- » Only submit supporting evidence if this provides additional and relevant information.
