

Young Achiever of the Year 2020

This award recognises a volunteer or individual member of staff under the age of 30 who has demonstrated commitment, creativity, and passion in the work that they do throughout the Scottish social rented sector.

Submissions must evidence how the individual has: inspired others; demonstrated an ability to go above and beyond; a willingness to learn and build new skills; shown initiative to overcome challenges; developed new ideas and highlighted opportunities; and/or a positive outlook.

Who can apply?

This award is open to an individual volunteer, apprentice, or member of staff working within the Scottish social rented sector under the age of 30.

The judging process

- » An independent judging panel will rate your application against the award criteria. The panel will consist of representatives from organisations across the Scottish social rented sector.
- » Your award submission will provide the basis for both the shortlist and final decision of the winning entry.
- » TIS welcome applications in more than one award category.
- » Please ensure you answer all questions as fully as possible and keep the content of your nomination focused – avoid exceeding the suggested word count.
- » Only submit supporting evidence if this provides additional and relevant information.
